

Elegant, durable, beautiful porcelain paving solutions

Porcelain has come of age

Porcelain paving has been one of the great success stories of patio paving over the past few years. The only issue has been installation using conventional Type 1 sub-base material where bonding of the paving has been hard to achieve. Now the solution is as easy as 1-2-3.

1 Beautiful GeoCeramica® porcelain surface slabs are permanently and inseparably bonded to a drainage mortar base which offers excellent stability, strength, drainage and adhesion.

2 Each pre-bonded flag unit features integrated nibs on all four sides which help to protect the porcelain face during transit and installation.

3 Now GeoCeramica® makes it easy to install porcelain paving over a conventional Type 1 sub-base, for perfect, durable results, every time.

Unbound installation shown. When installing GeoCeramica® as a rigid pavement, add cement to the laying course sand and use a polymerised sand for jointing.

GeoCeramica® Paving Options

Inspired by nature, the GeoCeramica® range of porcelain paving harnesses the true beauty of natural stone whilst adding the benefits of modern porcelain paving. The range comprises four options, Impasto, Marmostone, Fiordi and Bluestone which provide a very flexible palette for the designer.

There are also three thicknesses available, 60mm for driveways, 40mm for patio paving, and 10mm for indoor spaces and for exterior detailing elements such as step treads. This makes the GeoCeramica® range from Brett an ideal paving solution for your next paving project.

Impasto

Impasto has been designed to provide the luxurious look of traditional Belgian Bluestone with its natural, subtle veins, lines and patterns. However, like the rest of the GeoCeramica range, this comes with all the benefits of modern porcelain paving.

Bluestone

Visually, similar to dark Granite, Bluestone has an elegant, densely specked surface pattern. This range comprises two colour options, Gris Claro and Noir Puro. Bluestone has been tried and tested for use on driveways where the impermeability of porcelain makes it immune to the staining resulting from vehicle use, and gives a fantastic aesthetic to any driveway.
